The event Note Making-'Learn How To Learn Online' was held by the students for the students of Prahladrai Dalmia Lions College of Commerce and Economics belonging to Self-Financed Courses BAF and BIM program where we students witnessed the importance of making notes on virtual platform through medium called Google meet.

The event was accompanied by a melodious Saraswati Vandana, hailing the goddess of knowledge and wisdom. Thereby, our event was enthusiastically hosted by Mr. Jugal Maddheshiya where he greeted our In charge Principal Dr. Kiran Mane and Vice Principal Prof. Subhashini Naikar of SFC and the leading program co-ordinators – Prof. Sailee Shringarppure (BAF) and Prof. Ashish Shukla (BIM) along with other faculties.

The evening was graced by our Vice Principal Prof Subhashini Naikar where she reflected her profound knowledge on the topic of note making. The registration link along with Google meet link was provided by the respective organizing team. The event was thereby opened to the registered students with approximate attendance of 138 students. Leading the batch of 138 students and more the 1st speaker for the day Ms Akansha Singh gave a brief introduction on the respective event accompanied with PowerPoint presentation which included importance and why students should make notes for theory subjects. After suggesting few tips and short idea the event was further carried forward by the next speaker Ms Bhageshree Mali where she gave some interesting methods and techniques on how to capture notes for practical subjects. She shared some of practical examples as in what and how students should make a perfect note making without stressing one's self. Some of the energetic students gave a positive response towards the Question-and-Answer session held by our anchor and speakers. With encouraging words the informative webinar was culminated with a vote of thanks proposed by Ms. Vidhi Thoriya . With this the entire virtual event of note making came to an end.
