Main Content

We visited to cancure research foundation 6 days back . it was totally different experience for me and me friends as we were thinking about going there we also decided to get something for them and we got some food and fruits for them as we had no idea about what they eat . when we entered the N.G.O they welcomed us then they started telling us about how cancer happens how it starts and creates lots of problems in ours life . the reason for cancer is tobacco , nicotine , drugs which spoils our lungs our mouth our throat . Not Only this is caused due to harmful products but it can also cause by some kind of health issues . this was the best experience
