A REPORT ON THE INTER COLLEGIATE SEMINAR DATED 21ST SEPTEMBER 2019
On the topic: IPR Solutions & Funding Schemes for Startups in India

(Conducted jointly by BAF and BIM Dept in collaboration with IQAC Dept. And Incubation centre of P.D. Lions College of Commerce and Economics) with special initiative of BAF

All members of the organising committee, all teaching and non-teaching staff of SFC and Degree College were present for the seminar. Approx. 25 other colleges of Mumbai participated in the seminar. The auditorium had a full house with almost 125 guests (including college students, teaching and non-teaching staff). The inauguration programme started with the blowing of the conch shell immediately creating the mood followed by Saraswati Vandana. After the felicitation and short speech of the chief guest Mr. Shashank Pradhan the technical sessions started. Both the speakers conducted the technical sessions in a very lively, interactive way which was appreciated by the audience. The Metro Mumbai News Channel covered the event. The seminar aimed to provide a solution about the possibilities, options and different sources for arrangement of Funds for Startup. Also Advocate Hiren spoke about the IPR laws- Patent, Copyrights, Trademark, Geographical Indication, etc, and possible ways that IPR law can be beneficial for Startups. The Seminar was open for budding entrepreneurs, students and teachers. A distinguishing feature of the seminar was that this was completely a student-drawn programme. An active student committee headed by the student in-charge – Mr Vipul Jha (TYBAF) comprising almost 30 BAF and BIM students worked for almost 2 months to make it successful.
