Seminar on Professional Ethics in the Field of CA
By the Department of Business Communication and Accountancy

The Department of Accountancy and Business Communication organized a Webinar on the topic of "Professional Ethics in the Field of CA" on 26th February, 2022 for the students of Degree as well as Self Finance Courses. This lecture was conducted online on Google meet. The webinar was organized with an objective to make students aware about the principles that govern the behavior of a person or group in a business environment. The purpose of the webinar was to provide rules on how an individual should act towards other people and organizations in a professional environment. It aimed to discuss Ethical principles that underpin professional codes of conduct.

In the session, the speaker highlighted various points to help students to identify and deal with ethical issues, developing their moral intuitions, which are necessary in everyday choices and actions. He emphasized on the importance of good conduct, behavior and attitude of Chartered Accountants in a business environment. He also talked about maintaining a friendly and cooperative relationship among other practitioners in the field of business and organizational ethics through formal communication and email ethics. The session ended with the vote of thanks by Emelia Noronha.
