The Incubation Cell of SFC of the college had organised following two activities in this academic year:

1. "BOOT CAMP ON ENTREPRENEURIAL THINKING":

- The Boot camp was conducted on entrepreneurial thinking. Organized by INCUBATION CELL of Self-financed courses and IQAC in association with ATLAS Skilltech University. It was taken online on zoom platform. The event was organized with an objective to enlighten the students. This Boot camp was about developing skills as an entrepreneur which emphasized about growing your business. It taught students about team building and co-ordination. Enhancing the knowledge of students by asking those questions related to all the big companies and made students to know about the current status. All the brands and their positioning, market value. Speaker discussed on the analysis of all the apps their ratings and how all it took to reach millions of users.
- The session was started with Saraswati Vandana. The guest speakers were Omkar Pandharkame sir and Utsav Shroff on 13th December 2021 on zoom platform. The Boot camp was held in the presence of Principal Kiran Mane, Vice Principal of self-financed course Prof. Subhashini Naikar, in charge of incubation cell Prof. Mohini, and the other faculties including Prof. Poonam, Prof. Rahul and Prof. Kritika. The Boot camp was attended by 112 students from different streams. The workshop was too informative and helpful for the students. They learnt a lot through this event. He gave us an example of business ethics, do's and don'ts. Various aspects of business. Company knowledge, in depth analysis about business. The event was made more fun and interesting when the audience was allowed to ask questions from the guest.
- The feedback of the Boot camp students enjoyed the session. The language and communication skills were helpful and impressive. Sir covered up a lot of things about entrepreneur. He mentioned that customer satisfaction is the most important thing in business. The video interaction went well. Students got a better understanding about the session with the help of images. Entrepreneurship is the ability and readiness to develop, organize and run a business enterprise. The way Omkar Sir explained the concept of Entrepreneur was really easy and clear to understand. Students got to know the basic thought process and challenges that a person who wants to venture in this field must be ready for. Overall the session was very informative and helpful for everyone. Students liked the way of teaching and they found it unique. The motivation was felt by all the students and great initiative was taken by the organizer. By the end of this session students got the e-certificates for the involvement of the students. The Boot camp ended up with a national anthem.
- The team of incubation cell feels proud to organize such a successful event and would like to convey thanks to Principal and Management for their timely advice and co-operation for organizing the Boot camp 2021-2022.
