Report on Library Orientation for FYBFM Students (31st July 2025)

The BFM (Bachelor of Financial Markets) Department organized a Library Orientation Session for First Year BFM (FYBFM) students on 31st July 2025. The session aimed to familiarize students with the library facilities and resources available to support their academic journey.

The orientation provided students with detailed information about the library rules, membership procedures, and borrowing system. Students were also introduced to the cataloguing system, enabling them to efficiently locate books and reference materials related to banking, finance, and other subjects.

In addition, the session highlighted the availability of journals, reference books, digital resources, and reading spaces, encouraging students to make effective use of the library for research and self-study.

Course Coordinator Ms. Mansi Bafna, Faculty members Ms. Shalini Chauhan, Mr. Vishwajeet Chaudhari addressed the students.

Students were guided on how to maintain discipline within the library premises and the importance of utilizing library resources for academic excellence. The session also helped in resolving students' queries regarding library usage.

Overall, the library orientation was informative and beneficial, helping students become comfortable with the library system and encouraging them to develop strong reading and research habits.
