On the rainy morning of June 30, 2023, Prahladrai Dalmia Lions College of Commerce and Economics in association with Qknit Foundation and Mumbai Traffic Police hosted a momentous event to mark the commencement of its academic year - the Pride Rally. The event aimed to celebrate the LGBTQ+ community, promote inclusivity, and foster a sense of unity and acceptance within the college.

The assemblage began with the arrival of dignitaries, including the Chief Guest, Mr. Sumit Pawar along with the Vice Principal of the self-financed course, Ms. Subhashini Naikar Ma'am and faculty members from various departments. The event started with the ceremonial lighting of the lamp and a prayer to invoke the blessings of Goddess Saraswati through the melodious rendition of Sarasvati Vandana.

Ms. Subhashini Naikar, the Vice Principal of the self-financed course, addressed the gathering and spoke about the significance of the event, emphasising the importance of inclusivity and acceptance in creating a harmonious society.

The Chief Guest, Mr. Sumit Pawar, was then introduced by Miss Neha Sharma, the teacher in charge of the event. His words resonated deeply with the audience, leaving a lasting impression on all who were present.

Throughout the rally, participants enthusiastically chanted slogans to spread awareness and promote acceptance. Slogans such as "Chhod do judgement, zamana kya kahega" (Let go of judgments, what will society say) and "My partner, my choice" reverberated through the college campus, emphasising the importance of embracing love, diversity, and individual freedom.

To foster a spirit of unity, participants engaged in various activities. They handed out roses to one another, symbolising love, compassion, and support for all individuals, regardless of their sexual orientation or gender identity. This act of kindness and solidarity further reinforced the message of acceptance and inclusivity.

The climax of the event featured a poignant gesture. A beautiful heart-shaped structure, adorned with the colours of the LGBTQ+ flag, stood as a symbol of love and solidarity. Dignitaries, faculty members, and students imprinted their thumbprints on the heart, signifying their commitment to embracing diversity and promoting equality.
