IDF Student Leadership Programme (SLP)

Volunteer for teaching

Become a Mentor and create Student Leaders

Indian Development Foundation (IDF)'s Student Leadership Programme (SLP) focuses on training leadership skills among students in different schools. Students are mostly drawn from aided/ unaided/ municipal schools. SLP project was launched in Jan. 2014 and it has grown over the years with a target to create 50k student leaders this year in different cities in India. SLP has become a proven model for student leaders.

Your volunteering will help us in meeting out the target. Your friends who have passion in teaching students are also welcome to join hands with us and strengthen SLP. The volunteer can be in any part of India.

Involvement – 8 sessions – 8 Saturdays - 2 hours each – 16 Hours In all

IDF will help in locating the school for the volunteers which will be closer to their College or Residence. However, the volunteers too have an option to choose a school of their choice.

Training of volunteers to Mentors

The volunteers will be trained in by IDF Trainers and they will be called Mentors. The Training of volunteers will be a one day session for a maximum of 30 volunteers in a batch for a duration of 3-4 hours. The trained mentors will be later assigned the task in different schools which will be co-ordinated by Team IDF. The programme will be for class 7/8/9 students.
