A Brief summary of the event/programme:-

The Project Guidance Orientation was organized to familiarize students with the procedures, requirements, and best practices for undertaking academic or professional projects. The session aimed to guide participants in planning, executing, and documenting their projects effectively while aligning with institutional and industry standards.

The main objectives of the orientation were:

1. To provide an overview of the project process, from topic selection to final submission.
2. To clarify the roles and responsibilities of students and guides.
3. To introduce the documentation format and evaluation criteria.
4. To explain ethical considerations, originality requirements, and plagiarism policies.
5. To motivate students to pursue innovative and research-oriented projects.

Participants expressed that the orientation was highly informative and helped them gain a clear understanding of project expectations. They appreciated the detailed explanations and interactive nature of the session.
