

Project Learning by Doing: Reaching out to NGOs

Every year all students of FYBCom and SYBCom undertake this project. The aim of this project is :

- To develop & understand the problems faced by different sections of our society.
- To inculcate a sense of responsibility & sensitivity towards the less privileged members of the society.

Following are few glimpses into the project.

