Report on Celebration of Constitution Day

Date: 27th November 2025

Date: 26th November 2025

Venue: AUDITORIUM: Prahladrai Dalmia Lions College of Commerce and Economics

Prahladrai Dalmia Lions College of Commerce and Economics celebrated Constitution Day on 26th November 2025 with great enthusiasm to commemorate the adoption of the Indian Constitution and to promote awareness about constitutional values among students.

The Programme commenced with the recitation of the Preamble to the Constitution of India, in which students and faculty members participated with solemnity, reaffirming their commitment to the ideals of Justice, Liberty, Equality and Fraternity.

This was followed by the screening of a short documentary on the Indian Constitution that highlighted the historical background of the Constituent Assembly, the drafting process, and the contribution of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar and other framers of the Constitution. The documentary served as an informative visual resource for students to better understand the significance of the day.

To actively engage students, a Quiz Competition on the Indian Constitution was organized. The quiz tested students' knowledge of fundamental rights, duties, and important constitutional provisions. The interactive format created excitement and encouraged healthy competition among the participants.

The main attraction of the event was a Guest Lecture by Dr. Sharmila Ghuge, Associate Professor, Jitendra Law College. Dr. Ghuge delivered an insightful talk on the relevance of the Constitution in contemporary India, its salient features, and the importance of upholding constitutional values in everyday life. Her lecture inspired students to respect the Constitution and understand their role as responsible citizens.

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks, conveying appreciation to Dr. Sharmila Ghuge, the management, the Principal, Vice-Principals, faculty members, and the students for their valuable support and active participation. The event was a meaningful tribute to the spirit of the Indian Constitution and reinforced democratic awareness among the academic community.
