Date: 22nd January, 2020

The National Register of Citizens (NRC) and the Citizenship Amendment Act (CAA) are two controversial measures that have generated intense debate and protests in India. The NRC is a proposed register of all Indian citizens that would require people to prove their citizenship by producing documents such as birth certificates and land records. The CAA, on the other hand, provides a path to citizenship for non-Muslim migrants from Pakistan, Afghanistan, and Bangladesh who entered India before December 31, 2014.
